

Yale University - YET British Isles Tours - 2016 & 2017 - Tour Director

Karen and Jon Larson, Yale Alumni Tour de France – September 2015

Jon Larson – '63 snapshot

International travel experience includes five business and pleasure trips to the British Isles since 1962 including consulting for IBM-World Trade with British National Rail. Extensive travel around the world to 43 foreign countries in the America's, Europe, Middle East, North Africa, and Far East. Tour Director for Yale Alumni Tour de France 2015 with 54 participants. Tour Director for Yale Alumni British Isles Tour 2016 with 44 participants. Founder and chairman of Charity Enablers Foundation www.lff1.org. Served multiple roles including founder, chairman, president and/or director of 15 501c3 non-profits. Jon is a managing partner of VC firm Investment Recovery Partners LLC www.irpllc.net, and was co-founder and president/CEO of MEDICOM Corporation. Won the prestigious yearly President's Award as the #1 recognized contributor to TQM Total Quality Management in U.S. industry by AQP-ASQ – the Association for Quality and Participation. He is the author of "Self-Publish Your Own Book – A Simple Guide", published in 2014. Born and raised in the Hawaiian Islands. Yale University - BS IA/EE Industrial. Admin., Electrical Engineering. Married for 51 years to Karen Brown of Rochester, New York. Karen met post-Yale Jon while finishing her BA in English Literature/History studies at the University of Hawaii in 1965. Junior Phi Beta Kappa and Mother of soon to be world famous educator, explorer, environmentalist, business entrepreneur and college professor son Derek Larson age 50, and grandmother to scholar/athlete super kids Zachary (14) and Annie (11) Larson. Bridge master, former president of her Marin branch of the AAUW American Association of University Women, and caretaker for our aged Ragdoll Belle and our new HavaDoodle puppy Harley. Favorite pastimes now include shopping at Costco, fine dining out, cooking at home, TV, late night reading on her Kindle White, sewing, the San Francisco opera, ballet and live theatre, and bugging Jon about keeping up with his medical PSA and upper GI tests.

Jon Larson – full CV link